

COMMUNITY AND CIVIC ENGAGEMENT

Social Sciences Experiential Learning in Action (SOSC3005) / GE Capstone course (GCAP3145)

Semester 1, AY2022/23

[2nd Round application]

What is the course about?

This Experiential Learning course aims to provide students with experiential learning opportunities to apply their knowledge and skills to tackle complex real-life problems in the community. Through first-hand practical experience, students are expected to develop self-awareness of real-life issues, explore their career interests, establish job required attributes, experience real workplace challenges, prepare for employment upon graduation, and to reflect upon their life-career planning.

Students may choose to engage in either internship or attachment for at least 5 consecutive weeks (full-time) during summer or 200 work hours (part-time) during term time (or equivalent) as follows:

- Social Sciences Internship & Student Research Attachment (<http://sosc1.hkbu.edu.hk/ssi>)
 - to gain on-the-job experience by attaching to different kinds of internship organisations such as business firms, government offices, NGOs, social enterprises, political parties, district council members offices, arts or cultural conservation organisations, media and publishers, research centres, etc; or
 - to participate in research projects led by Faculty members
- Other experiential learning projects offered by the Faculty
 - to involve in community projects led by Faculty members
- Other forms of student attachment or internship vetted by the Faculty (e.g. self-sourced internship)

Social Issues

Through first-hand practical experience and the project-based learning, students are guided to address the social issue(s) identified in the following areas:

- Environmental and Urban Systems
(e.g. Environmental Conservation and Sustainable Development, Urban Renewal)
- Populations and Well-being
(e.g. Public Health, Child & Youth Development, Social Welfare, Education Needs, Ageing, Gender, Ethnicity and Equal Opportunities, Social Inequity, Human Rights)
- Learning, Praxis and Governance
(e.g. Cultural Diversity, Heritage and Community Collective Memory, Political Governance)

When will the internship or attachment take place?

- Usually between 1 June 2022 to 30 November 2022 for Self-sourced Internship
- Full Time (5 full days/ 40 hours per week) or Part Time (2 full days/ 16 hours per week) with agreement with the partner organisations

Remarks:

- Students have to obtain a minimum of 200 work hours within the period.
- Students will be enrolled in the course in Semester 1, AY2022/23.

Which course code should I choose?

The course titled “Community and Civic Engagement” is double-listed as two course types: (1) Social Sciences Experiential Learning in Action and (2) GE Capstone with two different course codes for respective groups of target students.

2nd round course application - Self-sourced Internship

Students' self-sourced internship for enrolling in SOSC3005/GCAP3145 Community and Civic Engagement must be vetted by the Faculty of Social Sciences. The vetting criteria are given as follows:

- The self-sourced internship must fulfil the course requirement of at least 5 consecutive weeks (full time) or 200 work hours (or equivalent).
- The self-sourced internship will usually take place between 1 June 2022 to 30 November 2022 for the course offering in Semester 1, AY2022/23
- Students should provide detailed information/description of the self-sourced internship
- The self-sourced internship is relevant to the social issue(s) that the student would like to address
- Students must make declaration of interest / report any conflicts of interest with the internship organisation
- Students must declare that the self-sourced internship is ONLY registered for and counted as the coursework requirement of SOSC3005/GCAP3145 Community and Civic Engagement upon successful course application
- Students have to confirm with the internship organisation to designate a staff member to be an On-site Supervisor who will be responsible to endorse student's attendance log records for fulfilment of 200 work hours and complete an appraisal of internship performance (30% of course assessment).
- Students have to submit the duly completed Consent Form for On-site Supervision to the Faculty Office during the course application period, or not later than 14 days after the start of the internship. Late submission will affect the course enrolment process.

Remarks: To avoid the double-counting of credit units of the same internship, the following situations are NOT accepted:

- Participating in an internship which is registered for and counted as the coursework requirement of more than one course offered by HKBU
- Transfer of credit units from a course taken, which is counted as the self-sourced internship of SOSC3005/GCAP3145 Community and Civic Engagement, to another course offered by HKBU
